

Doctor of Laws, honoris causa, February 8, 1994

Dr. Samuel Grange

Mr. Treasurer -

It is my pleasant duty to present to you and to this Convocation the Honourable Samuel Grange and ask that you confer upon him the degree of Doctor of Laws Honoris Causa.

As an artillery officer in World War II, as a practising lawyer and as a judge, his career has been marked by service to this country and its fellow citizens and to his profession.

As a teacher and mentor of young lawyers and later as a Bencher of this Law Society he returned to the profession in no small part the benefits the practice of law had conferred upon him.

His knowledge of the law joined with his ability to arrive at a practical resolution of problems was recognized by his appointment first to the High Court of Justice and subsequently to the Court of Appeal where in addition to his duties in court he was called upon to conduct Royal Commissions of Inquiry.

Throughout his long career his obvious enjoyment of the law as a profession combined with his good humour and gentle nature have earned him a special place in the affections of the profession. He has contributed greatly to Osgoode Hall Law School through his active role in alumni matter.

An example of the highest traditions and standards of the profession, the Honourable Mr. Justice Samuel George McDougall Grange is truly deserving of the degree of Doctor of Laws Honoris Causa.
